

Short and sweet.

As a Nation we are well on the road to "One Nation One Voice" and many of us don't like it one bit. We should be moving in the opposite direction, promoting the maximum amount of diversity on our airwaves and print media.

What's next? Turning on my computer to the one and only source of news? (Maybe the FCC.)